Agreement to Abide by School Bus Behavior Policy : Participation in after-school activities is a privilege and considered an extension of the school day. As such, all Caroline County Public Schools (CCPS) rules, expectations, and behavioral policies—including those related to bus transportation—remain in effect during all after-school events and transportation. Students riding the activity bus must adhere to the CCPS Student Code of Conduct for Bus Rides, which includes but is not limited to:

- Respecting the bus driver and other students
- Remaining seated at all times while the bus is in motion
- Keeping hands, feet, and objects to oneself
- Using respectful language and behavior
- Following all driver instructions promptly

Failure to comply with these expectations may result in suspension from after-school transportation and/or after-school activities.

Parent/Guardian Consent & Signatures I understand that my child's participation in after-school activities is an extension of the school day and is subject to CCPS policies. I give permission for my child to stay after school and ride the activity bus home. I have reviewed the expectations with my child.
